Motion to Supplement

Your Honor I was not moving for habeas relief I was only showing the court that it was ruled a violation of due process to rescind a granted parole only on the ground of reconsider everything with nothing new or far finding that was considered when it was granted

I ask this court to look at the parole panel sheet (reasons for granting parole) on Sept 13 2018 on reasons to grant please not my Ocas level of reoffending was minimum to none and my release will not depreciate the seriousness of my offense or promote disrespect for law

Now after the 75 day 75 day order was lifted my Ocas level went from minimum to none to moderate chance of reoffending It also went from my release will not depreciate the seriousness of my offense or promise distressed for the law to my release will

Releasing authorities must not deny parole for capricious reasons or base their decision of false information see Strong v. Ala Bd. pardons in parole 859 so 2d 1201 Al or crim app. 2001

The new level test is a risk assessment that's prior base the only way my points could increase to boost my risk level from minimum to moderate is if I caught a prison infraction after my year or if the board overlooked something when it granted my parole which the honorable court knows is not the case they only reconsider what was already considered and falsified their reason and fabricated their reasons
